First of all, I would like to convey my good wishes for the NEW YEAR 2022. Now we are saying bye-bye to 2021 with our best efforts to achieve the goals of our organization. I thank each and every member of my Alliance Family for their cooperation, love and affection given to me during 2021. Every member has contributed his/her services for the upliftment of society.

My special thanks to Multiple Council Chairperson of North, East and West Multiples for doing the service projects and Administrative meetings in their respective multiples. During the month of December, I attended the installation ceremony of District 150 which was a grand celebration organized in an open Farm House with lot of guests.
